Bring yours. Fifty acres, no traffic, no corridors and nowhere a dog has to be quiet.

This is a working estate with dogs of its own. Ours roam freely and are not shut away when guests arrive, so the estate suits dogs that are comfortable around other dogs and does not suit dogs that are not. Everything below exists because of that, rather than because we are fond of rules.

Booking

Tell us at the point of enquiry how many dogs are coming, their breed and roughly what they weigh.

Pet fee	₹5,000 per dog per night, plus GST
---------	---

Refundable deposit	₹10,000 per stay

Maximum	Two dogs per unit
---------	-------------------

The deposit is returned at checkout, less anything charged for damage or additional cleaning.

Vaccination

Send us anti-rabies and 9-in-1 vaccination certificates after booking and before you arrive.

This one is not flexible. Our own dogs are on the property and an unvaccinated visiting dog puts them at risk, not just yours. Where your state requires a licence for your dog, send a copy of that as well.

Breeds

We do not confirm a booking for a Pitbull, Rottweiler, Doberman, German Shepherd or Boxer without speaking to you first.

That is not a judgement about the breed. It is about a first meeting on open ground with dogs that live here and are not on leashes. Talk to us about your dog's temperament and we will work it out together. The decision rests with the estate.

The same conversation applies to any dog that is reactive around other dogs, whatever its breed. Tell us honestly. It is far better handled before you book than at the gate.

Where your dog can go

Off the leash	The open ground around the cottages, and through the heritage orchard.
Leashes	We recommend one on the river trek and the forest trail. We will ask you to use one where the situation calls for it: near livestock, through the vineyard rows during harvest, around other guests, or if your dog is reactive.
taraak	Dog-friendly. It is part of the estate, not a separate restaurant, so your dog is welcome at the table, inside and out.
At night	Dogs sleep in the cottage with you.

Our dogs and yours

The resident estate dogs roam freely and are not confined for guest arrivals. They are not kept on leashes. Where a situation calls for it, the team will hold them.

If a vet is needed, each of us covers our own animal. You cover your dog's costs and we cover ours, however the incident came about.

The estate is not suited to guests with dog allergies, guests who are frightened of dogs, or dogs that do not get along with other dogs.

If a dog goes missing

Fifty acres of estate and forest, with a great deal more beyond it. A dog off the leash can run, and hill country does not make it easy to find one.

Our team will help you look. But the estate is not responsible for a dog that goes missing, on the property or beyond it, and no refund or compensation arises. On open hill ground a leash is the only reliable answer, so if your dog is a runner, use one.

Behaviour and damage

You are responsible for your dog at all times, including towards the resident dogs, our team, other guests, livestock, the vineyard and the orchard.

Damage and additional cleaning are charged at cost, taken from the deposit first. Digging in the vineyard or the orchard, and chasing livestock, are charged as damage.

Please pick up after your dog around the cottages, taraak and the paths. Bags are available from the team.

If things go wrong

We may ask that a dog be put on a leash or kept in the cottage. Where behaviour puts people or animals at risk, we may end the stay, and no refund arises.

Coming with a dog? Message us on WhatsApp at +91 987 111 2706 and tell us about them.
